Invasion Highlights

WASHINGTON, June 6 - (AP) - Closeted in his bedroom, President Roosevelt spent the early morning hours of the invasion writing a prayer for victory for the Allied forces of liberation.

The chief executive, who received reports of the invasion through its early phases, will go on the air at 10 o'clock tonight (EWT), with the hope that the nation will join him in the prayer which he wrote.

Presidential Secretary Stephen Early, who described Mr. Roosevelt's activities to reporters, said the president went to his bedroom early last evening and began working on the prayer shortly after he delivered a nation-wide radio broadcast on the fall of Rome. Working behind blackout curtains which darkened the White House to night-time passers-by, Early said the chief executive received steady invasion reports-complete and in detail-from 11:30 p. m., on into the actual hour of the assault against the coast of France.

"He knew when the first barges started across the channel and he knew when they landed," Early said. "He knew of their operations in just as great detail."

LONDON, June 6-(AP)-Prime Minister Churchill announced today that Allied airborne troops had captured several strategic bridges in France before they could be blown up and that "there is even fighting proceeding in the town of Caen."

"Airborne troops are well established and the follows-up are proceeding with very much less loss than we expected," Churchill reported in a second statement of the day to the House of Commons.

Allied troops had penetrated in some cases several miles inland after effective landings on the coast on a broad front, he said. The prime minister said the American-British allies are sustained by about 11,000 first line aircraft, which can be drawn upon

"So far," he said, "the commanders who are engaged report that everything is proceeding according to plan."

"And what a plan!" He declared.

WASHINGTON, June 6 — (P) — Gen. John J. Pershing, who commanded American armies in France in the World War, issued the following statement following the announcement that a new expeditionary force had landed in France:

"American troops have landed in western Europe. "As the overmastering military might of the Allies advances It will be joined by the men of the occupied countries, whose land has been overrun by the enemy but whose spirit remains

Northern France Where Allies Invaded This Morning

Under the command of General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Supreme Allied Commander, Allied naval forces, supported by strong air forces, this morning landed on the northern coast of France. The initial landings ranged from 6 to 8:25 a. m. British time, (midnight to 2:25 a. m. EWT) with 4,000 ships and several thousand smaller craft taking the troops in. Earlier parachute and glider forces made deep penetrations. The German radio places the scene of the landings in Normandy, along a stretch of more than 100 miles of beaches from LeHarve to Cherbourg.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 6-(AP)-The Paris radio broadcast a report that "a last-minute flash from the battlefield" early tonight announced "a vicious battle is raging north of Rouen between powerful Allied paratroop formations and German anti-invasion forces." Rouen is 41 miles inland, east of Le Havre.

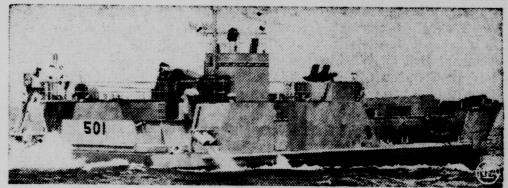

ALLIED ARMIES HEADQUARTERS, June 6-(P)—Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, commander of the group of armies invading France, said this afternoon he was pleased with the initial phase of the landing operations.

MADRID, June 6—(AP)—Border reports today said the Germans were moving mobile units from central France northward to meet any penetration of the Atlantic wall, and had altered the whole German-held Mediterranean area for any blow from the south.

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 6-(AP)-American, British and Canadian forces landed by daylight in massive strength on the Normandy coast of France today and sped inland from quickly-established beachheads. General Dwight D. Eisenhower told his troops this grand assault was a crusade which must bring "nothing less than full victory."

German opposition apparently was less effective than anticipated, although fierce in many respects.

Keenan reiterated Battle's statement, referring to a similar statement he (Keenan) had made at a council meeting some weeks ago. He wants an airport, he said, but not a small one, as is being developed.

Other speakers were Fred Ross, who favored the ordinance; John F. Taylor, councilman, who is against it and said he believes the city is making a mistake; Frank Middleton, who said the only time a person fails is when he does not put forth every effort to succeed; Howard Roberts, who took exception to a statement made by Mr. Taylor, who spoke of a shoe factory project which he termed a failure. Mr. Roberts said that he had subscribed $400 to a shoe factory, that the first one did not work out well, but it was the means of another one coming to Sedalia which is most successful. "I'm not sorry I put my money into the shoe factory," he declared.

Inquiries From Spectators J. O. Hawley referred to Keenan as the representative of 1,500 men, Missouri Pacific shop employes. He said he (Hawley) has a boy on a base close to Japan, but asked as a citizen what aviation would mean to him.

Van Dyne replied to him by stating he should want the field for his son, who would probably fly his own plane after the war. "I don't think he'll ever want to look at a plane," was Hawley's

One onlooker asked why the army had not developed the field as he had been led to believe would be done. It was explained to him that never at any time had it been stated there was any promise from the army. The request for an auxiliary field came from the army, and it had been assured everything possible would be done to have it developed, but by the time the bond election had been held and the land bought, the army had entered upon a retrenchment program and was closing air fields instead of opening new ones.

Two Prowlers Reported Early Sunday Morning

Two reports were received by the police early Sunday morning regarding prowlers. The prowler was first reported at the home of Charles Bolton, 400 West Fifth street, where he tried to get in a side door, about 1:15 o'clock in the morning.

The second call was at 2 o'clock to the apartment of William Howell, at the Quincy apartments. Third street and Quincy, where a prowler had entered the residence. Nothing was found to be missing. Entrance was gained through an unlocked window.

Hit Coastal Fortifications More than 640 naval guns, ranging from 4 to 16inch, hurled many tons of shells accurately into the coastal fortifications which the Germans had spent four years preparing against this day.

Prime Minister Churchill was able to tell Parliament that the shore batteries had been "largely quelroute from his former station, Wal- led," the underwater obstructions had proven less dan-Igerous than feared, and the whole operation was "proceeding according to plan."

ITS TEAMWORK THAT DOES IT

... Teamwork Will Put "Pettis County Over The Line Between The Hours of 2 and 9," Friday, June 9

Wherever your invasion forces are fighting-at sea, In the air, on the ground—they're working together for victory. They know that they must depend on each other, for only by coordinated teamwork will they win through to final victory in the earliest possible time.

Pettis County's Fifth War Loan drive will be a whirlwind 7-hour affair. On Friday, June 9th, between the hours of 2 and 9 o'clock, Pettis Countians will endeavor to subscribe its quota of $895,000.00

It's going to take teamwork—a lot of it—to put this drive over the top in one afternoon.

Our fighting men didn't hold back in turning the tide of this World War, nor can we afford to hold back. Go to your nearest "Induction Center" on Friday, June 9th, and purchase the largest War Bond you possibly can.

Every public school building in Pettis County will be a "War Bond Induction Center" and in Sedalia there are several other designated places . . . so please visit the Center nearest your home.

Every Public School Building In Pettis County Is an "Induction Center."

Roosevelt Hails Liberation of First Axis Capital, Rome

In Address Says "Victory Over Germany Still Distance Ahead"

By Howard Flieger

WASHINGTON, June 5. -(AP)-Hailing the capture of Rome with the jubilant phrase "one up and two to go," President Roosevelt declared tonight that the aim now is to drive Germany "to the point where she will be unable to recommence world conquest a generation hence."

Mr. Roosevelt, in a nationwide radio broadcast, cautioned that this struggle with the Nazis would be tough and costly and that the day of Germany's surrender "lies some distance ahead."

Whether his reaffirmation that the fight would be pressed until Germany surrenders was a reply to the recent speech of Pope Pius XII was not stated. The Pope asserted last week that the idea that the war must end either in complete victory or complete destruction is a stimulant toward prolonging the conflict and expressed hope for an early peace.

Speaking of Rome as the great symbol of christianity, the President declared "it will be a source tion which the Germans wrecked The President said at the out-avenue. of deep satisfaction that the free- on Naples and other Italian cities." set of his address that the United from school. I once had to do a composition about the world's greatest invention being wheels. Just think of gear-wheels, water-wheels, and especially all the wheels for transportation! But right now the greatest thing of all, I'd say, is to keep wheels going; keeping your car in service, for instance. There's this and that to help you. There's one motor oil and another. Now from what I know, the explosions in any engine must produce acids, which brings up the bright idea of safely OIL-PLATING your engine's insides with Conoco Nth motor oil. You want to prevent damage from acids...internal corrosion! Some things are specially good at fighting corrosion, and OIL-PLATING comes in that class. Even chromium plating, just for comparison, couldn't stay closer to working parts than this protective OIL-PLATING. It battles corrosion, so as to help you preserve your transportation as soon as you switch to Conoco Nth oil.
